Blessed Easter 2025

GENOVA, ITALY: The fresco Jesus appeared to the Mary after the Resurrection in the church Basilica della Santissima Annunziata del Vastato by Giovanni Battista Carlone (1603 – 1684).

My Dear Friends,

Today is one of the most holy days in Christendom: Easter Sunday. It is a celebration of the Resurrection, upon which our faith is based.

In observance of this all-at-once solemn and joyful occasion, we traditionally take a break from our regular educational routine and turn to the Divine. In that spirit, I offer you and your family an Easter soundtrack of beautiful, profoundly soul-stirring music.

This Easter compilation of powerful, traditional choral music, performed by London's legendary group, Tenebrae, will lift your home to new sacred heights as you and your family mark this holiest of days in your own way.

From me, my growing family, and my entire team here at Practical Homeopathy®, we wish "Buona Pasqua a te e alla tua famiglia." Happy Easter to you and your family.

Warmly,

P.S. We will resume our regular discussions of homeopathy and health freedom in a week. Next up? How to keep your kids out of the pediatrician's office. I did it myself with my three boys. You can do it, too.
