Christ Is Risen!

The fresco “Glory of Resurrected Jesus” by Guido Reni (1575-1642) in the cupola of the duomo in Ravenna, Italy

“Christus surréxit!”

“Surréxit vere, allelúja”

This traditional greeting in the Catholic church describes a blessed miracle that occurred two thousand years ago.

Translated:

“Christ is risen!”

“He is risen indeed, Alleluia!”

My dear friends, for Christians, today is our most sacred day – our holiest day – Easter Sunday.

As the angel of the Lord explained to Mary and Mary Magdalene as they came to see Christ's tomb in Matthew 28:6, "He is not here; for he has risen, as he said." Indeed, it was a pronouncement that has since offered hope as it echoes around the world.

So, from my family, myself and my entire team here at Practical Homeopathy®, we take a break from our regular routine to wish "Buona Pasqua a te e alla tua famiglia." Happy Easter to you and your family.
