Joette,

Thank you so much for all you do! I am so thankful for your generous and kind heart. I am a stay-at-home mother of seven kiddos and have already used many of the protocols and advice that you have offered on your blog. I can finally relax a little bit knowing I have this ace (homeopathy) up my sleeve. I too have used/tried many other alternative health care tools including oils, herbs, making my own tinctures, etc. I'm simply amazed though with the results I've gotten using homeopathy. I love that you also are a Weston A. Price follower!

May our dear Heavenly Father continue to bless you and bless your endeavor to get the word out on homeopathy and helping so many people

From a grateful Midwest Mom,
