Cyndi Prattt, Amherst, NY

Elizabeth had conjunctivitis (eye infection) that was recurring twice yearly until we were told about Joette.

The remedy I learned about not only got rid of the present infection, but removed the possibility of its return in the future. Joette explained much to me and Elizabeth hasn't had another infection since. This was over two years ago.

It is refreshing to put a medicine in my child's mouth that doesn't have side effects or cause a new illness.

Cyndi Prattt, Amherst, NY