

Food for Thought

What a week at Homeopathy Works! I'm very excited and just as busy preparing for my upcoming webinar system, How to Raise a Drug Free Family.

So, while I'm perfecting this year-long course, I'll leave you with a brief consideration.

A friend of mine, Liz Pitfield, uses this quote from Wendell Berry on her email stationary. I like the spirit of it but I can't help but tinker with it a bit.

This is Wendell Berry's version:

"People are fed by the food industry, which pays no attention to health, and are healed by the health industry, which pays no attention to food."

This is my version:

"People are fed by the food industry, which pays no attention to health, and are treated by the health industry, which pays no attention to food and knows little of genuine health."
